SECTION B: YOUR DUTIES UNDER THIS CONTRACT

TO PAY FEES: Types of fees

13. There are various types of fees you are responsible to pay. These fees are collectively referred to as the fees in this contract.
 - a. School fees refer to the costs of your child/ren 's education.

The school is entitled to charge school fees according to the yearly approved budget. The parents are entitled to insight in the budget during school hours.
 - b. Extra Costs refer to the costs for extra goods and services that we provide to your child/ren from time to time. Examples of extra goods and services include but is not limited to school tours, extra-curricular activities, outings, emergency medical treatment and stationery.
 - i. We will as far as reasonably possible, let you know before we provide Extra goods and services.
 - ii. You accept that the Extra goods and services are part of the school's standard offerings and that you have specifically requested them, this means that they are not unsolicited.
 - iii. You and the payer accept delivery of the extra goods and services and the responsibility to pay for them.

- iv. The extra costs will be added to your school account and must be paid by the end of the following month.

c. Your attention is specifically drawn to sections 39 to 41 of the Act:

“39. School fees at public schools.—

- (1) Subject to this Act, school fees may be determined and charged at a public school only if a resolution to do so has been adopted by a majority of parents attending the meeting referred to in section 38 (2).
- (2) A resolution contemplated in subsection (1) must provide for—
 - (a) the amount of school fees to be charged;
 - (b) equitable criteria and procedures for the total, partial or conditional exemption of parents who are unable to pay school fees; and
 - (c) a school budget that reflects the estimated cumulative effect of—
 - (i) the established trends of non-payment of school fees; and
 - (ii) the total, partial or conditional exemptions granted to parents in terms of the regulations contemplated in subsection (4).
- (3) The governing body must implement a resolution adopted at the meeting contemplated in subsection (1).

40. Parent’s liability for payment of school fees.—

- (1) A parent is liable to pay the school fees determined in terms of section 39 unless or to the extent that he or she has been exempted from payment in terms of this Act.
- (2) A parent may appeal to the Head of Department against a decision of a governing body regarding the exemption of such parent from payment of school fees.
- (3) In deciding an appeal referred to in subsection (2), the Head of Department must follow due process which safeguards the interests of the parent and the governing body.

41. Enforcement of payment of school fees.—

- (1) A public school may by process of law enforce the payment of school fees by parents who are liable to pay in terms of section 40.
- (2) The exemption from payment of school fees must be calculated according to the regulations contemplated in section 39 (4).
- (3) The exemption from payment of school fees in terms of this Act is calculated retrospectively from the date on which the parent qualifies for the exemption.
- (4) A public school may act in terms of subsection (1) only after it has ascertained that—
 - (a) the parent does not qualify for exemption from payment of school fees in terms of this Act;
 - (b) deductions have been made in terms of regulations contemplated in section 39 (4), for a parent who qualifies for partial exemption; and
 - (c) the parent has completed and signed the form prescribed in the regulations contemplated in section 39 (4).
- (5) Despite subsection (4), a public school may act in terms of subsection (1) if—
 - (a) that school can provide proof of a written notification to the parent delivered by hand or registered post that the parent has failed to apply for exemption contemplated in section 39; and
 - (b) despite the notice contemplated in paragraph (a), the parent fails to pay the school fees after a period of three months from the date of notification.”

What you must pay

14. You must pay all fees that apply to your child/ren attending the school.

When you must pay

15. The school fees are due and payable monthly in advance on or before the seventh day of each consecutive month.

In the event, that the school fees are in arrears on or before 31st March of that year, the remaining fees for the applicable year will immediately become due and payable.

Then in that event, that should the full year's school fees not be paid at the 10th of June of that year the School is entitled to institute legal action against the parents for the full amount due and payable.

16. At your child/ren 's first enrolment at the school and at the beginning of each school year, you may choose how and when you will pay the school fees - yearly, term to term basis or monthly over ten months from January to October.
17. If you are not sure about how much you must pay and by when, please make contact with the school office and we will give you a written explanation of how and when and how much to pay.
18. Each statement /invoice must be paid in full before or by the due date. In the event of any other arrangement being concluded between the parties, regarding the payment of fees, including that of exemption from payment, such arrangement has to be reduced to writing, signed by both parties and annexed to this contract for identification purposes. In the event that such fees as contemplated above are not paid timeously, the person(s), who has/have signed the contract will immediately be in default.

Part of Full Fees Exemption Process

19. Solely at the School's discretion and only on a separate written application to the School and the School Governing Body, the School may grant exception of the full or part payment of fees for a child/ren for a determined period of time.
- 19.1 In order to access this benefit, you are required to complete the "Aansoek om Vrystelling van Skoolfonds" in full, which is included in the full set of documents provided to you at enrolment. This process will involve a full credit assessment and create additional legal consequences, obligations and full disclosure, the application must therefore be read carefully and completed in full.
- 19.2 As part of the application you will need to provide the School with the following important supporting information and documentation:
- i. A minimum of three (3) months proof of income from both parents, or legal guardian or payer as identified in this contract, the school reserves the right to request supporting proof of income over a longer period and to confirm proof of income with your respective employer;
 - ii. A minimum of three (3) months bank statements from all banks of the parties. The school reserves the right and you hereby consent that the school can contact the respective banks and other financial institutions and also to request bank statements over and above the three (3) month period;

- iii. A municipal water and lights account;
- iv. Statements and proof of all assets and liabilities
- v. The School reserves the right to request other supporting information or documentation from third parties or by using third parties, like for example, credit listing companies to do so, Deeds searches etc..

19.3 It is important to note that any exemption granted will only apply retrospectively from the date on which you qualify for the exemption- the burden of proof to be on you as the parent/legal guardian and payer.

19.4 Until the application process is complete and a written decision has been made and communicated to you remain responsible and liable for payment of fees.

20. Fees and extra costs will not be reduced as a result of absence due to illness or otherwise.

How you must pay

21. If you pay the school fees monthly, we prefer to collect fees from your bank account by debit order. The details of your bank account to be debited must be provided to the school at date of enrolment. You are responsible to advise us as soon as reasonable possible of any change in your banking details, any costs that may be incurred as a result of your failure to advise of a change of your banking details, can be debited to your account.

22. All payments to the school (other than by debit order) are to be paid directly into our bank account, the details of which will be provided to you at date of enrolment.

When fees go up

23. We review the school fees for the following year at the annual AGM which is held in October of each year. You are invited and encouraged to attend the AGM and make submissions regarding fee increases to the School Governing Body at this meeting.

The responsibility to pay remains with the parents or legal guardian

24. Even if you have nominated a payer to pay the fees, the parent/s remain responsible for all the fees not paid by the payer. By signing this contract, you accept responsibility for payment in your personal capacity both as a surety for the payer and as co-principal debtor with the payer.

A surety is a person who takes responsibility for another person's contractual duties.

A co-principal debtor is a person who steps into the place of the main debtor if the main debtor does not fulfil their contractual duties.

Advance payments

25. You agree that we may deposit any fees you pay in advance and hold it.

26. We have the right to treat interest generated from the deposited fees as income for the school. This means if we do refund fees you paid in advance for any reason, we will not pay you any interest on the refund.

Late payments

27. You accept that if any instalment of a fee is not paid on time, and should your fees be in arrears on the 31st of March of each year, the full amount of fees for the year, becomes immediately payable to the school. If you ask in writing, we may decide to accept a late payment and continue to allow you to pay in instalments. However this decision is ours alone and if we do allow it for one late payment, it does not mean we allow it for other late payments.

Interest is charged on late payments

28. We add interest to the account if there are late payments.

28.1 The School is entitled to claim mora interest on the outstanding debt due to your failure to make payment on the due date.

28.2 The Prescribed Rate of Interest Act, 55 of 1975 sets the maximum rate of mora interest that can be charged. We alone may decide to charge a lower rate of interest.

Other costs we can recover from you for late payment

29. We are also entitled to recover;

- i. Late payment administration costs (default administration costs);
- ii. Collection Costs.
- iii. Any banking costs incurred as a result of your debit order not being honoured by your bank. (includes costs incurred as a result of you failing to advise of a change of banking details)

Payment of Debt

30. If money is owed to us (debt) at any time during or after this contract, you must pay the debt when we demand it. A certificate, letter of demand or statement signed by the Principal or authorised person will be prima facie proof of the amount owed without further explanation of the amount you owe to us and the date by which the debt is due. If you dispute the amount that you owe or the date by when you must pay, you must prove that the amount is not owing within 10 days from receipt of such certificate, letter of demand or statement.

PARENT'S GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

31. You will inform the School in writing, prior to admission and enrolment, of any special educational needs of your child/ren known to you.

32. In order to fulfil our obligations, we need your co-operation. Without detracting from any specific obligations contained in this contract, you are required to:

- i. fulfil your own obligations under these terms and conditions;

SECTION C: THE SCHOOL'S DUTIES UNDER THIS CONTRACT

To exercise reasonable skill and care

37. The School does not take any responsibility for any theft or loss of, or damage or destruction to any property of whatever nature (including School clothing, sporting and IT equipment, books, or any other personal possessions) brought on to the School premises by your Child/ren, unless the School or its staff are in physical possession of that property and damage occurs to that property either because -
- a. the School or its staff treated the property as their own; or
 - b. the School or its staff did not exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that can reasonably be expected of a person responsible for managing property belonging to another person, when handling, safeguarding or using the property.
38. Save as otherwise agreed to the contrary in writing, you consent to your Child/ren participating, under proper supervision, both in and outside the School, in sports, outings and other activities which may entail some risk of physical injury, as well as to your Child/ren travelling to and participating in School activities and programmes outside the School. Subject to the School taking reasonable care to avoid harm and save for any gross negligence on the part of the School, its employees or agents, the School is not responsible for loss or damage resulting from such sports, outings, activities or programmes.
39. The Parent hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold harmless, the Laer Volksskool's Governing Body, the School, its Principal and Staff as well as their authorised agents and/or representatives, against any and all claims, costs or expenses, howsoever arising, including legal costs, arising out of injury, loss or damage suffered as a result of any activities during the enrolment of the Pupil at the School.

40. The School will constantly endeavour to take such steps as may be reasonably required in the circumstance to do what it can to keep the pupil out of harm, and free of loss, taking into account the circumstances of each case. In respect of events where the School or one of its Employees (for whom it may be found to be vicariously liable) may be determined to have fallen short of its common law or statutory obligations in this regard, the School has taken out public liability insurance.
41. Subject to the limitations placed on the School's right to an indemnity placed on it in terms of statute and/or common law, both parent(s)/guardian(s) jointly and severally waive their claims and indemnify the School and its Employees against any claim of the pupil in excess of the cover provided by its public liability insurance in respect of the event in question.
42. At all times whilst your child/ren is at School or under its control, the Principal or the members of staff act in loco parentis. The term means "in the place of a parent". Accordingly, if your child/ren requires medical attention while under the School's care, we will, if practicable, attempt to obtain your prior consent. However, should we be unable to contact you, we shall be authorised to make the decision on your behalf should consent be required for urgent treatment (including but limited to anaesthetic or operation) recommended by a doctor.

Initials 1. _____ 2. _____

To monitor your child/ren 's progress and report to you

43. We will monitor your child/ren 's progress at the school and produce regular written reports. We will let you know if we have any concerns about your child/ren 's progress. However, we do not have a duty to diagnose any learning disability or other condition your child/ren may have. We can arrange a formal assessment of child/ren by an appropriate expert. You will be responsible to pay for the formal assessment. You may choose to arrange the formal assessment yourself.

To protect personal information about you and your child/ren

44. When you apply for your child/ren to be enrolled at the school and when you sign this contract, you give us personal information about you, your child/ren and the payer. We undertake to protect this personal information in accordance with common law and/or statutory obligations and our privacy policy, which is set out in the clauses below:
45. We may not distribute or publish any personal information about you, your child/ren or the payer, unless you give us consent in writing.
46. When you sign this contract, you give us consent for us to:
- a. Collect, store and share credit information about you, the payer, and any divorced or separated parent responsible for paying fees;
 - b. Inform any other school or educational institution to which you propose to send your child/ren of any outstanding fees;
 - c. Collect and store names and contact details about yourself and your child/ren ;

- d. Share names and contact details about yourself and your child/ren with other parents, legal guardians, staff and other people we authorise for school-related purposes. We undertake to only share this information to the extent needed to:
 - i. manage relationships between the school, the parents, the legal guardians and the current pupils; and/or
 - ii. provide references.
- e. Include photographs, with or without name, of your child/ren in school publications or in press releases to celebrate the school's or your child/ren's activities, achievements or successes;
- f. Supply information and a reference for your child/ren to any educational institution which you propose your child/ren may attend.

SECTION D: ENDING THIS CONTRACT

When the contract ends automatically

47. This contract ends when your child/ren completes the school's curriculum and any exit examinations we offer at the end of your child/ren 's schooling. This contract therefore continues indefinitely until that time unless it ends in terms of this contract.

When you may cancel the contract

48. You have the right to cancel this contact at any time and for any reason.
49. You are however liable for payment of the schoolfees until the end of the month, during which you have elected to cancel the contract, despite the date upon which you have removed your child/ren. If you have chosen to pay school fees yearly or if you have paid any costs in advance, we will refund you any amount in credit to your account.

When we may cancel this contract

50. We have the right to cancel this contract at any time and for any reasonable reason. To do this, we must give you notice in writing of our intention to end this contract. We will refund you any fees you have paid in advance.

A material breach is considered to exist where you or your child/ren :

- i. Fail to uphold the school policies;
- ii. Fail to fulfil any legal requirements necessary for your child/ren to attend school in South Africa;
- iii. Act in such a way that you or your child/ren become seriously and unreasonably uncooperative with the school and in the opinion of the Governing Body, you and your child/ren 's behaviour negatively affects your child/ren 's or other child/ren's progress at the school, the well-being of school staff or brings the school into disrepute.

SECTION E: DISPUTES

54. You choose the residential address set out hereto before as your chosen legal address for the services of all notices and legal purposes and the postal and email addresses for all other communications by the school to you. An example of a legal process is a summons, which is a document the sheriff of the court serves to start legal proceedings.

Alternative dispute resolution

55. If any dispute arises out of or in connection with this Contract, or related thereto, whether directly or indirectly, the Parties must refer the dispute in writing for resolution within ten (10) working days of the dispute arising, firstly by way of negotiation to the School Governing Body and in the event of that failing, in writing to the Department of Education District Office, having jurisdiction.

Bringing legal action in the Magistrate's Court

56. You agree that we may start legal proceedings to recover any liquidated debts you owed to us in any Magistrate's Court that has jurisdiction to hear the matter. This is in terms of sections 45 and 28 of the Magistrate's Court Act (Act No 32 of 1944). A liquidated debt is one where the existence of the debt and the amount of the debt are not in dispute. We confirm that a certificate of balance issued by the Principal of the school or any person duly authorised thereto will be prima facie proof of my indebtedness to the school.
